NASHVILLE NEWS.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 18.—Weather conditions are very unfavorable for training operations at Nashville at present. The main track is covered with snow, and there has not been a horse on it this week. The covered track is used by almost every trainer.

Since the weather has been so unfavorable for training operations it is certain the Gorman & Bauer pair, Sinner Simon and Bardolph, will not be sent to New Orleans for the Crescent City Derby. This conclusion was reached today by trainer Bellew. While Nashville will have no representative for the New Orleans event several of the three-year-olds are being pointed for the Tennessee Derby, and it is almost certain Postmaster Wright, Olefant, Fore and Aft and one or two others will be especially prepared for the big Memphis race.

Entries for the Canadian Derby have been announced. The list is a great one. Walter C. Parmer, secretary, who lives at Nashville, made known the entries.

For the Canadian Sportsman's Handicap are sixty-six nominations, among the number of nominations being such horses as Alfred Vargrave, Merriment, Easy Street, McChesney, Lucien Appleby, Caliban, Mrs. Frank Foster, Spinel, Red Robe, Reservation, Allopath, Albula, Chamblee, St. Hera, Bill Massie, Ethel Wheat and others.

For the Grand Canadian Steeplechase the great jumpers Tip Gallant, Benson Caldwell, Dr. Nowlin, Lord Farandole, Belcourt, Tommy Hill, Captain Conover, Sauber, Governor Boyd, Cubanite, Hie Away, Philma Paxton, Hand Vice, Afghan, King Galong, Trenet the Mere, Competitor, Gould, Phosphorous, Creaper, L. W. and Terry Ranger.

The riding talent has begun to arrive at Cumberland Park. There is already on the grounds Richard Ryan, who rides for Frank Bruhns; J. Irvin, engaged by S. E. Parmer; H. Boland, who is to do the lightweight riding for John Ferris; jockey Landry, who is under contract to Gorman & Bauer, is also here. A. W. Booker, under contract to W. W. Darden, arrived a day or so ago and reported for duty. He has begun with the Darden horses. The Drake people have had jockeys Houbre, Mead and Wilson with them for some time. All three of these boys are hard at work each day. Wishard has them out early and exercising horses too. Both Mead and Houbre are living with Wishard and they are early to bed and up at the peep of day. The Drake trainer is greatly pleased with his selection of riding talent, and he thinks he will have a great lightweight in Houbre. Tom Hayes is on the hunt for a first class rider for this season. He has thirty-five horses in his string and will employ the best riding talent only. William Gerst also is without a regular rider, as is the case with John Walters, Albert Franklin and Clay Bros.

THE SARATOGA SPECIAL.

The officers of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses have every reason to believe that the subscriptions to this year's Saratoga Special will exceed by 15 per cent. the number of the subscriptions to the Special of last year and the season before. The most conservative of them look for above thirty subscribers, which will insure an eligible list of between ninety and one hundred youngsters and a field of sufficient strength to give the great $1,000 a chance event a value of $20,000 or more.

Half a dozen well known horsemen who were compelled by circumstances to remain out of last year's pool have signified their intention of entering this year, and three or four outsiders who have not so far given the race serious consideration are thinking of coming in. The most prominent of the new men looked to, to take subscriptions are Joseph E. Widener, of Philadelphia; John A. Drake, of Iowa and Chicago; B. F. Clyde, of Philadelphia; Stephen Sanford & Sons, of Amsterdam; Burns & Waterhouse, of San Francisco; Henry T. Oxnard, of this city; Henry M. Ziegler, of Cincinnati, and Miles Finlen, of Butte, Mont.

The Special is the greatest two-year-old race on the Saratoga program and always will be, without reference to the greater value of the Produce Stakes William C. Whitney and his associates in the Saratoga management instituted a couple of years ago. The Special's hold on the popular fancy is its sportsmanlike character. It is a blind pool, into which horsemen with promising youngsters in their barns annually put up $1,000 without definite knowledge that they may so much as send a starter to the post. The only line they may have on the youngsters is obtained through yearling Fall trials. This line is by no means infallible. As often as not youngsters that stop watches in three furlong dashes just after being broken fall utterly to make good the following spring. Whether they fail because they are tried out before they have attained sufficient maturity to stand a top speed gallop is a debatable question, but they fail just the same. Such a race is consonant with the spirit of the Saratoga enterprise. The stockholders in the plant at the Springs entered the scheme purely in the interest of racing. Dividends are a secondary consideration. They are content with legal interest on their investments and so far have turned over their profits to the management for improvements and the raising of purses.—Morning Telegraph.

A QUESTION OF RULES.

Word comes from New Orleans that trouble is likely to grow out of the decision of the stewards in the claiming of the two-year-old Dick Bernard. Sam Hildreth, who purchased the colt from Captain Bunbury after the latter claimed him, lodged a protest with the Crescent City Jockey Club against Bunbury for failing to deliver the colt to him. Bunbury, in turn, to protect himself, will appeal the case to the stewards of the Western Jockey Club. If the latter decide against Bunbury it will lead to a lot of complication. The case has already caused a lot of talk. Last year a number of horses were claimed by trainers who acted in exactly the same capacity as did Captain Bunbury. Several of the horses claimed have won a number of races. If the Western Jockey Club decides that Stewards Bryan and McDowell's ruling was right, it looks as if the owners of the horses which were claimed by these trainers have a good case to recover all the purses won by the horses which were claimed from them. Captain Sam Brown, who is spending a few days at New Orleans, in speaking of the case, said:

"This is a very serious matter. I am in practically the same position as is Mr. O. G. Parke in that I have a couple of men training and managing stables for me. I will lose no time in giving both Bob Tucker and Pete Wimmer power of attorney to act for me."

Huzzah was lucky in getting off with the leaders and escaping interference while rounding the first turn, came to the outside at the turn into the homestretch, finished fast and got up in the last stride. McWilliams was bumped into and crowded back while rounding the first turn, then closed a big gap, but tired after getting to the leaders. Balm of Gilead was much used racing with De Reszke in the first half. Albert F. Dewey and Great American were knocked out of it at the first turn. Both ran winning races and will do to remember. Rough Rider can do better.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Annie Lauretta was well ridden. Kinsler nursed her along for the first half, caught Socapa tiring in the stretch run, finished fast and was going away at the end. Locust Blossom closed a big gap and finished gamely under a drive. Munro made too much use of Socapa, which showed early speed, but tired and quit under pressure. Alene Abbott ran a poor race. Novelty finished well.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1903 contains all the racing at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1902; five handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scale of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, the racing statistics of 1902 giving amounts won by owners and horses and jockey record, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1902 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1902. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

News comes from Memphis that J. W. Schorr's Crescent City Derby candidate, Rightful, is coming around fast and is showing good work in his trials. This would seem to indicate that Rightful will be the Schorr representative in the Crescent City Derby, which is run on the closing day of the Crescent City Jockey Club's meeting, March 14. The Hildreth colt, Topsoil, is also being sent along in preparation for this Derby, and Hildreth announces that if all goes well he will have two representatives in the race. He will also start Witfull. It was said that J. E. Madden will send on his three-year-old Glassful, from Louisville to start.

Albert Simons has decided upon a change of plans for the coming season's campaign. He will ship his entire stable from New Orleans to Benning at the close of the meeting. Last year he took in the western circuit and did not go east until late in the summer. The fact that John W. Drake intends racing at Memphis and Louisville this spring may have had something to do with Simons' determination to go east earlier than he contemplated. There has been considerable friction between these two owners for a year, and both have been boosting each other's horses in selling races.

Dr. J. D. Neet, of Kindergarten stud, Woodford county, has been offered $9,000 for the yearling bay colt by Top Gallant—Cinderella, by Tomahawk, or Blue Ruin. The tender came from W. C. Whitney, but in what manner Mr. Neet did not state. He, however, states that he has refused the offer, and priced the youngster at $12,500. The colt is a half brother to Hastings, Plaudit, Ferrier, Glenheim and Handsome.

John Hyland, trainer for August Belmont, has just returned to New York from Garnet S. C., where a part of the stable is spending the winter. Hyland says the two-year-olds there will be sent to Benning. He also says that Mizzen, Masterman, Lord of the Vale, Fire Eater and other horses that did well last year have shown improvement and will be ready for an early campaign.

Will Darden, of the firm of W. W. Darden & Co., has signed a contract with jockey A. W. Booker for his services the coming season. His salary will be $1,000 a year. Booker is one of the most promising light-weight riders in the west and should advance his reputation with the Darden stable, as it includes some of the best horses in training.

It has been figured up that although Hanover has been dead four years his progeny may win more than $1,000,000 on the turf. Up to the present time Hanover's sons and daughters have captured $929,202 in stakes and purses. Though he was represented last year exclusively by three-year olds and upward, they won $71,340.

Cheviot, aged about twenty-five years, dropped dead last Monday of heart failure at Avondale, E. S. Gardner's breeding establishment near Nashville. Cheviot was the sire of the American Derby winner Rey el Santa Anita, Van Brunt and other noted horses.

"Link" Jones, the once noted colored jockey, is dead at his home, Nashville, Tenn. He was 42 years old, and rode many high class racers in the '70's.

Sidney Paget has secured second call on the services of Julius Fleischmann's regular jockey, "Jack" Martin.

Moabina has been fired in front and the mare will have to go out of training for a month or more.

PUSS IN BOOTS 20-1

PLACE AND SHOW, HEAVILY.

MIKE RICE, 3-2, WON.

Only another demonstration of the fact that it pays to get the goods, the whole goods and nothing but the goods, which is what you receive when you buy our wire.

Today one from 15 to 25 to 1.

This trick worked remarkably fast and is in the finest condition possible. There is only one chance in a hundred of him losing as he outclasses his field by a block.

YELLOW TAIL, 20-1, was our special last Saturday. HORTON, 25-1, was our special in the Burns Handicap the previous Saturday.

This trick for today is as good a betting proposition as the above two goods things were.

We also have a certainty in the Derby which is to be run next Monday, February 23.

Winner—Ch. h. by Golden Garter—Music (trained by F. J. Bevan).
Went to post at 4:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Alfred C. got off running and displayed the most speed all the way, but had to be hard ridden all of the last quarter to stall off Chickadee. The latter was given a weak ride, Pollak never made a move until in the last sixteen, but she finished fast through the last hundred yards and was catching the winner at every stride. Vesuvia ran well, but tired when the pinch came. Free Pass tired. Inspector Shea ran well to the stretch.

Went to post at 4:39. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won ridden out; second driving. Carl Kahler came away without great effort in the stretch run, was much the best and won as he pleased. Andes lost ground by going wide at the turn into the homestretch, but finished fast and had enough left to stall off a challenge from Benmora. The latter ran his race. Stratton showed but little speed. Alpaca quit after going a half. Stratton was claimed by F. Gering, Jr., for $1,385.

Winner—Blk. c. by Faustus—Rhadamantha (trained by C. A. Mulholland).
Went to post at 2:06. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Tommy Knight closed up a big gap from a bad start and finished fast. Puss in Boots got away running, forced the pace throughout and held on unexpectedly well. Action was crowded back at the start and made up much ground. Lunga went well. Rose of Hilo quit badly in the last quarter. Bell Reed lacked his recent early speed, quit badly and ran a very bad race. Caronal ran well to the stretch.

Winner—B. g. by Midlothian—Talluda (trained by W. L. Stanfield).
Went to post at 2:43. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. David S., suddenly improved, indulged the pacemaker to the stretch, where he forged to the front without urging. Elfonsie, crowded back at the start, closed a tremendous gap in the last six furlongs. Lone Fisherman made up fifteen lengths on the leaders and finished with a rush. El Piloto is consistent, was always prominent and held on well. Light Ball appeared like a contender when a furlong out, but tired at the end. He favors soft going. Bernota quit in the stretch and is strictly a mudlark. Matin Bell pulled up and was left, she only cantered the journey.
Scratched—37566 Johnny McCarty, 106.

Winner—Br. c. by St. George—Sallie McAllister (trained by T. G. Ferguson).
Went to post at 3:03. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Bearcatcher received an indifferent start and displayed phenomenal early speed, went through next to the rail and drew clear in a jiffy, retaining his advantage to the end, won going away, and is undoubtedly of high class. Toledo beat the barrier, but was quickly run into subjection by the winner and seemed to be bearing out on the sharp turn, came wide into the stretch losing ground, but stuck gamely to his work under a terrific driving finish and can do better. Rapid Water, away badly, closed a gap and appeared like a sure second when a sixteenth out, but Toledo wore him down fast at the end. Box Elder is improving. St. George Jr. broke slowly and was nearly left, is a good looker and has worked fast.

Winner—B. g. by J. H. Fenton—Mrs. McAlester (trained by F. Farrar).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mike Rice made the running throughout, always well in hand, won cantering and was much the best. Dagmar was the only serious contender and ran in greatly improved form. Imperious stumbled over the last hurdle and threw his jockey, but was remounted and finished and may prove useful at this game. Duke of York ran out of the course. He was sent over the left wing of the first obstacle. Throw his race out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rancocas—Heeley (trained by W. B. Jennings).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second handily. Sad Sam broke his field a half dozen lengths at the start and won the race right there. He sustained a terrific pace unexpectedly well. Honiton fell hopelessly out of the race with an incapable jockey, but closed up a great gap and finished fast on her own courage and is steadily improving. Glendenning from a bad start went after the leader and appeared the only other serious contender in the first half, and although tired in the stretch drive stuck gamely to his task. Tower of Candles could never get up, was outrun from the start and ran a bad race. Sylvia Talbot ran a very fast first half and held on well.
